

model in a principled way, we first need to know what it is built from, and in what units its cost is measured.

The remainder of Part I builds exactly this vocabulary: the network, the Transformer, the cost metrics, and the search method.

